

I am adamately against allowing a few corporate media companies to control the information that we see on TV, read in print or hear on radio. I am against allowing the FCC to lift restrictions on cross-ownership of the media. Sincerely, Bob Simpson